Prayers are requested for all our sick, elderly and housebound.

This Weekend there will be a special collection for Peter Pence. If you have Gift Aid envelopes, please use them.

Thank you for your ongoing generosity. Last weekend's Offertory donations £670 and Building Fund £200.

Parish Meeting that took place last Monday night was well supported. Thank you to those who came along and also to the organisers. It was agreed, that we would restart hall activities at the end of August, and gradually rebuild the social life of the parish. Details of events etc will be issued over the summer.

Today Sunday, we have our last 4.30pm Mass. Can those who attend this Mass book (07570726268) a place at one of the other Masses, please (Vigil fully booked)? A word of thanks to those who have kindly done stewarding duty, music ministry; readers and those who wiped down.

Baptism Preparation Meeting

The first stage for requesting your child to be baptised is always to collect a Baptism Pack from the back of the church and handing the registration form into the parish house. The next course will be on Tuesday 13th July at 7pm by Zoom.

Summer Holidays If you are staying at home or holidaying elsewhere Frs. William and Daniel wish you all a very restful and relaxing summer holiday and of course great weather!

Booking for Sunday Masses call the designated number - 07570726268 Times to call: Mon to Fri 12-2pm and Mon 6-7pm.

Please Note there will be no 8am Mass this week.

Ss Peter and Paul there will be a Vigil Mass on Monday at 7pm and Tuesday morning at 9.30am.

Music at St Patrick's. Two years ago we launched our music school for young people. We were very blessed to have started up a children's choir, and also several young people taking organ lessons. Like so many things, this came to an abrupt end when lockdown struck back in March 2020. We have decided to restart the School and details will be issued over the summer months.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Wisdom 1:13-15,2:23-24

Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living.

To be – for this he created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying.

Yet God did make man imperishable, he made him in the image of his own nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.

Second Reading 2 Cor 8:7,9,13-15

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

Gospel Mark 5:21-24,35-43

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kum!' which means, 'Little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.
